

WHITE PAPER SERIES RELEASE

IN DIALOGUE WITH DR SEAN PHELAN

ENCLOSURE BY METRIC:

A Culture-Centered Critique of the Tertiary Education Strategy 2025-2030

THE SPEAKERS

Dr Sean Phelan is an Associate Professor at the School of Humanities, Media and Creative Communication, Massey University, Wellington. His recent research has examined how much reactionary culture-war discourses are energised by antipathy to universities and critical scholarship in the social sciences and humanities. His book Wild Antagonism: How the far right claimed critique will be published by Edinburgh University Press in May 2027.

Professor Mohan Dutta is the Director of CARE and Dean's Chair, Professor of Communication at the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Massey University. Using the culture-centred approach (CCA), he leads a dynamic team of researchers, community organisers and activists to deliver innovative, community-centred communication solutions to build and sustain human health and wellbeing across the globe.
